CINNAMON SPA CELEBRATES FIVE YEARS OF PAMPERING

The concept for the spa arose in 2007 when Javed was producing a coffee table book titled, Safari Spa, when he came to recognise that there was a lack of quality spas in Tanzania.

After years of planning and research into both modern and traditional therapies, Cinnamon Spa opened its doors to excited clients in December 2010 and today we celebrate five years.

You can indulge in a unique experience inspired by the Swahili beauty rituals of old, and the natural Zanzibari environment. A refuge nestled in the heart of Stone Town, Cinnamon Spa offers over thirty different therapies and treatments using the best organic ingredients from the islands.
